ANNOUNCEMENTS.

are authorized to announce RON. M. R. SMITH, candidate for Congress, from the congressional district, subject to action of the democratic party.

Proceedings of Central Committee.

The county democratic central committee met July 21, 1906, pursuant to a call of the chairman, at 11 a. m., but three members present.
On motion it was carried that July 17th be named as the date for holding township mass meetings Aug. 18th as the date for holding the county convention to nominate candidates for the various county offices.

It was further ordered that the township mass meeting on Aug. 17th be held at 1 o'clock p. m., and that the county convention meet at the parsonage in Marble Hill August 18 at 10:30 o'clock a. m.
Moved and carried that Hon.
James M. Zimmerman be named as temporary chairman of said convention, and D. B. Hill temporary secretary.

It was moved and carried that the chairman of the county central committee be authorized to appoint an executive committee of five members including himself to cast and certify the vote for congressman and congressional committeemen from this county; and in accordance with said motion the following were named to compose said committee: F. M. Wells, D. K.
Foster, George B. Myers, J. R. Farrar, and T. B. Drum.

From Walworth, Wisconsin.

This morning finds us in the country about three and a half miles from Walworth. It is delightful here. Temperature in the house the last few days reached 80 degrees which is "hot" here; to-day it is 65. This is a beautiful farming country, nearly everything under cultivation. Land is rolling just enough for diversity, but not enough to hide the view for several miles in any direction. Small patches of woods dot the scene here and there. I am not able to buy a farm here; land is worth—the asking price—from $100, to $150 an acre; according to the improvements.
Corn, oats, and hay (timothy and clover) are the principal crops. Hogs and dairy cattle and fine horses the principal stock.
My brother-in-law is milking twenty-eight cows now. He has a cream separator, ships the cream and feeds the milk. There is a growing demand for holstein cattle—pure blooded cows sell from $150 to $300 each while grades bring from $45 to $75. Veal calves are profitable. My brother-in-law sold two five weeks old, for $18.00 net. Poultry is in good demand, eggs 18c a doz. and fowls 15c a lb.

Hay is easily done. Hayloaders are used to put the hay on the wagon and horse hay forks to unload. I have seen only one farm without its hay loader. Barns are large and hold all the products of the farm. Speaking of barns, I should like you to see some we visited this morning that belong to the rich man of the place. His farm embraces 1000 acres of this choice land.
On one part he has two new barns 100 ft. by 50 ft., with 24 ft. posts and a cement floored basement 12 ft. high, yards are also cemented or paved. On another part he is building a barn, nearly completed, 150 ft. by 50 ft., 30 ft. high to the eaves. All barns have gambrel roofs.
This barn also has a basement stable, which will have cement floor. There is an engine room with a large gasoline engine for running all kinds of machinery, from the hay fork to the threshing machine. There is hay in it from about 100 acres, and the boy (one half) is still empty, waiting for the straw after threshing.

The owner made his money selling railroad ties and telegraph poles.
The air is bracing, and we feel more vigorous already than when we came.
Dinner is waiting, this letter is becoming lengthy, and I will close.
Yours very truly,
F. J. HENDERSON.

The following fervent prayer appeared in the editorial columns of the Omaha World-Herald, Friday, June 15: "We are beginning to need rain out here in Nebraska.
We have no complaints to make over republican management of the sunshine. It has been all the most conspicuous could desire and the spring showers were fine. But we do feel that we are entitled to a few gentle summer rains. And so we appear to the republican party, source of all our blessings and bane of all the give us rain." The Commoner.

Here I come again with a few items. People of this neighborhood are busy threshing wheat.

Sedgewickville.

Mrs. James Martin died near here July 8, and was buried in the Sedgewickville cemetery. She had been sick of consumption several months.

Messrs. Thomas Jacob, James and Will Martin started Wednesday, on a tour of the west. They hope to be benefitted by the climate, as they are in poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith had business in Marble Hill Monday.

The Modern Brotherhood of America will give an ice cream supper near the hall here, on July

Zalma.

The campmeeting at this place has just closed, and has greatly benefitted the church, town and community. Seven persons were converted and two were added to the church. Rev. J. C. Denton did the preaching. He condemned all manner of sin fearlessly. Bro.
Denton will be remembered at Zalma. He uncaps the dark world so that no one may be deceived.
He also pictured the beauties of the heavenly land and gave earnest and urgent invitations to his hearers to come and live.

Crops have never been better than they are this season. Hay making is in order just now.

Road overseers are working the roads. We hope for better roads.
John Pickett, one of the road commissioners, was in town yesterday.
He said road work would commence at Dongola in a few days.
J. W. CORNUM.
